

13:01:17 From Bob Smith - vice chair PNW Section : jj meeting is on Bandwidth

13:49:51 From Ken Dickensheets : how was the audio being picked up for the Zoom link?

13:52:27 From Tim McCulloch : Yes we had music :)

13:52:32 From Tim McCulloch : sounded direct

13:53:02 From Earl Armstrong II : It sounded pretty good and direct.

13:53:26 From Jess Berg : I think original sound is turned on too

13:55:02 From Tim McCulloch : The Wizard!

13:56:43 From Bob Smith - vice chair PNW Section : Will the HVAC update include UV air scrubbers?

14:11:42 From Jess Berg : www.flymachine.com

14:28:49 From Tim McCulloch : Howdy, listen only today]

14:35:17 From Earl Armstrong II : Zoom is not cooperating today

14:36:45 From Earl Armstrong II : Hello all Im Earl_Audio Production Student residing in Bremerton Washington. Currently attending Miami Art Institutes online--finishing BA I started at the Seattle Art Institutes just before they closed their doors in 2019

14:37:31 From Earl Armstrong II : Thank you for hosting and to the Crocodile for allowing us to tour their new facility.

14:40:04 From Tim McCulloch : Yes! A big thanks for The Crocodile exploration and the location Zoom contributions, well done!

14:40:37 From Bob Smith - vice chair PNW Section : I need to run now. Again, thank-you for a fantastic tour. Excellent AV as usual, Dan M.

14:42:19 From Jess Berg : Jess Berg, live sound and touring engineer for 19yrs, came up in Minneapolis, was on west coast for 8yrs, met PNW AES folks when I moved to Seattle area in 2019, became a committee member in 2021, moved back to MN now working in radio broadcast audio with mn public radio. Just wrapped MPR day at the mn state fair. Thanks to Jayney and Val and everyone at the Crocodile for making this happen, and to the hybrid team too!! This has been an excellent experience! :)

14:42:43 From David Tang : Much thanks to all for this event.
I need to go switch films right now.

14:48:12 From Earl Armstrong II : Thank You Jayney!!

14:50:35 From Chris Myring : Many thanks to Dan, Jayney and Val for the excellent presentation. I was supposed to be involved in live-recording a show tonight but it was cancelled due to the drummer falling ill. That gave me the opportunity to attend here.

14:52:56 From Earl Armstrong II : Thank you Dan!!

14:54:58 From gg@aes.org Gary Gottlieb : I need to run, thank you all for another great pressed train

14:54:58 From Earl Armstrong II : Humble thanks Jayney for your kind words--always a pleasure!!

14:55:07 From gg@aes.org Gary Gottlieb : presentation...

15:05:02 From John Chester : Dinner call, gotta go now.

Thanks to Val, Jayney, Dan, and the whole crew for a great meeting.

15:10:49 From Earl Armstrong II : I must go thank you all again!

15:11:37 From Jess Berg : I have to jump off too, see you next time- thanks all!

15:29:21 From Tim McCulloch : Soldering waves plug ins? LOL.

15:30:12 From Tim McCulloch : Some plugins sound more like the physical unit than others, and many of the vintage physical units don't sound nearly alike.

15:33:58 From Tim McCulloch : Thanks for the meeting, Gary and PNW AES. Y'all rock!

15:44:15 From Chris Myring : Rosalie Cunningham at Cropredy:
